DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-8, 22, 25, and 28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Eilbacher et al. (Eilbacher; US 6,724,887 B2; cited and applied for the first time).

Eilbacher plainly teaches the claimed environment for observing calls to a call center. The claimed ACD/reception means reads on the PBX/ACD 102 in FIG. 3 of Eilbacher. The claimed IVR/interactive means is taught at column 8, lines 42 – 46. The claimed recorder/observation is taught at column 9, lines 11 – 23 and column 10, lines 4 – 26.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 9-21, 23, 24, 26, 27, 29, and 30 are allowed over the prior art of record.

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Sunderman et al. teach an automatic call distribution system with user definable logging and method. Brandt et al. teach a system and method for creating and accessing outgoing telephone call log. Judkins et al. (US 6,707,904 B1) teach a method and system for collecting reports for call center monitoring by supervisor. Benson et al. teach telephone call centre performance evaluation. Judkins et al. (US 6,763,104 B1) teach a call center IVR and ACD scripting method. Suhm et al. teach an apparatus and method for analyzing an automated response system.
